

I Just Found a Kiwi in My Lunch

Tune: She'll Be Comin' Round the Mountain

I just found a kiwi in my lunch
I just found a kiwi in my lunch
It's green on the inside, brown and furry on the outside
I just found a kiwi in my lunch

I just found a coconut in my lunch
I just found a coconut in my lunch
The inside's white and sweet and it's got more hair than me
I just found a coconut in my lunch

(If you get tired of singing, you can just use one verse)

I just found some hummus in my lunch
I just found some hummus in my lunch
It's creamy and kinda pasty and for dippin' it's quite tasty
I just found some hummus in my lunch

I just found some cereal in my lunch
I just found some cereal in my lunch
It's crunchy and it's clustery, left over from breakfast it must be
I just found some cereal in my lunch

(I wonder if I have anything to go with that cereal. I'm a bit thirsty)

I just found some milk in my lunch
I just found some milk in my lunch
It's cold and swooshy in my glass and it gives me a ticklish moustache
I just found some milk in my lunch

(Hey! There's something else in my lunch bag. And it's moving!)

I just found a monkey in my lunch
I just found a monkey in my lunch
He's not supposed to be here, or eat my hummus neither
Someone get this monkey outta my lunch
