

A large rectangular area defined by a dashed border, intended for creating a card. The border consists of a solid top line, a solid bottom line, and dashed vertical lines on the left and right sides. A horizontal dashed line is also present, dividing the card area into two sections.